Request for Sunnyside Priority

All sections of the request form must be completed

Who may request Sunnyside Priority?

Any member of a household applying for rent-geared-to-income (RGI) assistance, that is 16 years of age or older, may request the household be given Sunnyside Priority where at least one member of the household meets the following criteria:

- The applicant household has a spouse, partner, sibling or other immediate family member who is a resident of Sunnyside Home and for whom they play an active role in the family member's life, care or well-being.
- The applicant household meets the mandate for senior's housing and qualifies for rent geared-to-income assistance on the waiting list for community housing.
- The housing preferences include one or both of 233 & 239 Franklin Street North (both located on the Sunnyside campus).

Requesting Sunnyside Priority:

In order to request Sunnyside Priority, please complete all sections of this form and attach a letter from Sunnyside Home staff confirming the residency of an immediate family member.
